Sweet Preliminary Held

The preliminary trial of Archie Sweet, who is held for the murder of Miss Byers near Moscow, was held on the open prairies one night this week. About twenty automobiles were parked in a circle and the justice read the riot act to him by the aid of the auto lights. Sweet waived trial and was forthwith taken to the Dodge City jail to await the action of the district court. He swears he is innocent but also hopes the mob will mercifully lynch him before making him serve a term in the penitentiary, if the jury finds him guilty. He has been given "silent treatment" for a week--no one speaking to him for that length of time--in hopes of making him break down and confess, but he shows no sign of wavering. Sweet has confessed religion since his incarceration and says he has no fear of the ultimate outcome of the case.

shortly before dark to do some trading at the Floris store. When about a mile from their home the steering gear gave way, the car turned over twice and fractured his skull in such a way that death was almost instantaneous. Mr. Dorman was about 30 years old. His wife and daughter received a severe nervous shock but no injuries. It is thought the funeral services and burial will be held at the Floris cemetery today.

A. C. Rogers, father of Chas. W. Rogers of the Majestic, arrived Tuesday from Ponca City, Oklahoma, to spend a week or two with his son. Mr. Rogers, senior, was here about twelve years ago and expected the same kind of town there was at that time, but was agreeably surprised to note the progress that had been made in the intervening years.

The Odd Fellows lodge had initiation Monday night, after which the ladies were invited into the hall and all repaired to the Annex Cafe, where a delicious oyster supper was served. A number of visitors from the surrounding towns were present and a good time is reported by everyone.

The members of the local K. of P. lodge who had planned to go to Beaver Tuesday failed to make the trip, owing to the fact that several attorneys who intended to go were occupied with the trial of Frank Gray.

at the reduced prices. The company was bound over to the district court in the sum of $2,400. Eight counts were proven against him and the court fixed his bond at $300 on each count. He was taken to jail in default of bond but it is thought his friends will be able to make a satisfactory bond for him within the next few days.
